

[9:26:04 PM] Sir Jared: I have to get up in four hours so hope this is kinda short

[9:26:16 PM] Lewot: Just tell us when you want to stop, I guess.

[9:26:23 PM] Sir Jared: Okay.

[9:26:26 PM] Lewot: Loading Quicksave...

[9:26:52 PM] Lewot: Er, so, I told KV and Levitita already, but I made a lot of fuckups in the battle

[9:26:57 PM] Lewot: but they've all been corrected now

[9:27:02 PM] Lewot: on your character sheets

[9:27:04 PM] Lewot: <https://sites.google.com/site/hannabartpekopon/home/game-2/player-characters>

[9:27:06 PM] Lewot: so there

[9:27:08 PM] Lewot: anyway

[9:27:20 PM] Lewot: you had just defeated the horse-riding party

[9:27:36 PM] Lewot: in Fire Emblem, the horses just kinda disappear along with the riders

[9:27:46 PM] Lewot: like I said, their weapons are useless, just your basic Iron Weapons

[9:27:54 PM] Lewot: the Wind Knight had a Wind Tome, if Miles wants that

[9:28:09 PM] KV: (aren't the stats we picked to level up completely refilled usually? Or am I imagining that?)

[9:28:12 PM] Lewot: you've already got a Heal Staff, so you probably don't need another one.

[9:28:19 PM] Lewot: What I do is I give you the five points

[9:28:24 PM] Lewot: but I don't heal the rest.

[9:28:29 PM] KV: (ah, yeah, alright.)

[9:28:33 PM] Lewot: It seems like a nice compromise.

[9:28:44 PM] Lëvítý: (I have to brbathroom)

[9:28:49 PM] Lewot: You can steal some armor off of these guys if you want

[9:28:52 PM] KV: Miles takes the Wind Tome from the Wind Knight's corpse.

[9:29:05 PM] Lewot: the Wind Knight has the best armor

[9:29:12 PM] Lewot: Jay's still naked

[9:29:30 PM] Lewot: Miles' armor has taken no damage, since it only works against magic.

[9:29:31 PM] KV: Miles was content with his Priest Robes. "Jay, you still don't have any armor, right?"

[9:30:13 PM] Sir Jared: "Aye, that's true."

[9:30:14 PM] Lewot: Levan's and Rammens armors are around half dead, specifics are on your character sheets

[9:30:34 PM] Andrew Cornell: "I may need to consider some new armor myself sometime," I say, more to myself and the Turnip Bros. than anyone else.

[9:30:54 PM] Sir Jared: Jay removed the Wind Knights armour and equipped it.

[9:31:01 PM] Lewot: I probably said last time that I wouldn't prompt you to steal armor since they're wearing it instead of holding onto it, so maybe I won't next time

[9:31:11 PM] Lewot: the Wind Knight had a Knight Robe as armor

[9:31:31 PM] Lewot: it'll give you 1 Defense against physical attacks and more against magic (I'll have to look how much)

[9:31:37 PM] Lewot: and it still has 47/50 HP.

[9:31:44 PM] Andrew Cornell: (to Lewot's credit, this is what he meant with the Knight Armor that I read out from last time)

[9:31:54 PM] Lewot: Yes, I meant to say Robe.

[9:32:13 PM] Lewot: Jay puts on the Robe.

[9:32:21 PM] Lëvîty: (back)

[9:32:30 PM] Lewot: Y'all can now walk through the path where the horses rode in from.

[9:32:52 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Well then, all that aside," I say, "shall we continue forward?"

[9:33:03 PM] KV: Miles checked to see if the enemies had any other items on them first.

[9:33:19 PM] Lewot: They do not. They used them up.

[9:33:36 PM] KV: Miles shrugs. Was worth a check.

[9:33:36 PM] Lewot: Although Miles does find some Gold

[9:33:46 PM] Lewot: I guess 1,900

[9:33:47 PM] KV: A glimmer catches his eye.

[9:33:54 PM] KV: "Woo monies!"

[9:34:29 PM] KV: He turns to Rammen. "Hey, how much did I owe you from the market?"

[9:35:15 PM] Andrew Cornell: "From the market? You mean when I bought that Sheep?" I ask.

[9:36:03 PM] Lewot: (The Knight Robe will protect against 3 damage from magic attacks, I just checked.)

[9:36:59 PM] KV: (No, seriously, now I'm checking the logs, trying to figure out who I owe money to.)

[9:37:02 PM] Lewot: I'll assume you move slowly forward while negotiating the finances...

[9:37:14 PM] Lewot: The next "room" is more of a corridor...

[9:37:24 PM] Lëvîty: Levan kinda floats around, as always, surveying the group's surroundings.

[9:37:38 PM] Lëvîty: She sort of accidentally wanders a bit ahead of them, but not by too far.

[9:37:55 PM] Lewot: Levan sees that the path makes a Y junction ahead.

[9:37:55 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Hmmm, I think it might've been 500 gold? Something like that?" I muse whilst moving forward.

[9:38:30 PM] Lewot: Where it splits, there's a little light coming from the trees, as though a third path might open up under some conditions.

[9:38:33 PM] Lëvîty: "Hey, guys! There's a junction ahead."

[9:39:16 PM] KV: "Yeah, 500 gold, that's right. For half the Copy Flower." Miles handed over what he owed Rammen and checked out the junction in front of them.

[9:39:22 PM] Lewot: (Hopefully this puzzle will be easier than the vine one. =P It should be.)

[9:39:47 PM] Lewot: You see that neither path goes very far, and both of them end in another round root pad.

[9:40:33 PM] Andrew Cornell: "I don't know if I should really keep tabs on something like that, all things considered, but much obliged regardless," I say to Miles, pocketing the gold.

[9:41:02 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Now then, let's see what we've got here then..."

[9:41:22 PM] Lëvîty: "It's another riddle puzzle thing I think."

[9:41:53 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Another one? That tree isn't just one of Knowledge for nothing then," I say.

[9:42:23 PM] KV: "So then, how shall we do this?"

[9:43:19 PM] Lewot: Observing the canopy above both roots, and the wall-trees around, you don't see anything that appears threatening. But, then, it seems like the trees can open up and create paths anywhere, and you don't know what'll be behind them.

[9:43:43 PM] Lewot: From the middle of the junction, you don't hear any noises like you heard of the horses.

[9:43:48 PM] Lewot: Just cicadas again.

[9:44:33 PM] Lewot: As I said before, though, you get the sense from the lighting that a path can open up in front of you, in the middle of the junction.

[9:44:47 PM] Lewot: Now, try something =P

[9:44:49 PM] KV: Miles starts walking through the path to the left.

[9:45:00 PM] KV: "May as well try one of the root pads."

[9:45:12 PM] Lewot: Miles reaches the left root safely.

[9:45:22 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Indeed, if we try them both," I say, moving towards the right, "we'll be able to figure this area out."

[9:45:35 PM] Lewot: He still doesn't hear any suspicious noises. Rammen moves right.

[9:46:10 PM] Lewot: Rammen arrives at the right root safely as well. Seems the cicadas are a bit quieter here, which you think means it's closer to the edge of the forest from which you entered.

[9:46:36 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Hmm, curious," I say, noting the cicadas having quieted down.

[9:47:14 PM] Lëvîty: "Aww I miss the cicadas! Their songs are always my favorite. I don't like crickets or birds as much as I like cicada sounds." Levan moves right.

[9:47:18 PM] Lëvîty: Absentmindedly.

[9:47:28 PM] Lewot: Levan drifts toward Rammen.

[9:47:34 PM] Lëvîty: Forgetting about the bat rule that she mentioned before, floating as she does so.

[9:47:44 PM] Sir Jared: Jay keep an ear out for cicadas lowering tone. "Hm.."

[9:47:52 PM] Lewot: Considering Miles' comment, I assume he steps on the left root.

[9:48:06 PM] Lewot: It sinks a little, but he feels like it can sink more.

[9:48:08 PM] KV: Indeed he does.

[9:48:21 PM] Sir Jared: Jay joins Miles on the root

[9:48:30 PM] Andrew Cornell: I go ahead and take a step on the root pad.

[9:48:31 PM] Lewot: Jay moves to the left

[9:48:51 PM] Lewot: Rammen steps on the right root. It feels like it just needs a tiny bit more weight to sink all the way.

[9:49:00 PM] Lewot: Jay steps onto Miles' root, and it sinks fully.

[9:49:05 PM] Lewot: However, nothing appears to happen.

[9:49:38 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Levan, come on over and join me, eh?" I say, noting Levan floating towards me.

[9:50:34 PM] Lewot: The two pairs can no longer see each other thanks to the Y-shape of the paths, but you're not too far apart. You should be able to hear each other speak.

[9:50:54 PM] Lewot: Levan is floating next to Rammen...

[9:51:17 PM] Lëvîty: Levan joins Rammen on the root.

[9:51:22 PM | Edited 9:51:27 PM] Lëvîty: "Sorry! I was thinking."

[9:51:40 PM] Lewot: As Levan steps down, both pairs see the trees in the middle of the junction open up to form a gap.

[9:51:57 PM] KV: Miles steps off the root but doesn't approach the new opening just yet.

[9:52:07 PM] Lewot: As Miles steps off, the opening closes again.

[9:52:17 PM] KV: "Yeah, I thought as much."

[9:52:31 PM] Lewot: Jay feels as though his weight is almost enough to hold the root all the way down, though.

[9:52:51 PM] KV: Miles thinks for a moment.

[9:52:57 PM] Andrew Cornell: "What're you thinking over there, Miles?" I call out.

[9:53:14 PM] Lewot: Rammen can probably tell he's thinking, being psychic :3

[9:53:42 PM] KV: "I'm not sure what difference it'll make, but one of you two switch with me."

[9:53:53 PM] KV: Miles heads over to the other pad.

[9:54:28 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Levan, go ahead and go over to Jay," I tell Levan. "I think Miles has an idea of what to do."

[9:54:57 PM] Lewot: Miles approaches Rammen and Levan.

[9:55:48 PM] KV: Miles explained as he walked so that everyone could hear.

[9:56:31 PM] KV: "It looked like Jay could nearly hold the thing down by himself, and the two of you are lighter than I am. Maybe your root just needs a tad more weight on it to keep that gap open permanently."

[9:58:02 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Sounds reasonable enough," I say. "Best to test it with Levan, seeing as she's the lighter of the two of us."

[9:58:07 PM] Andrew Cornell: I nudge Levan a little.

[9:59:06 PM] KV: (Well actually, Levan and Rammen both have a Weight of 2)

[9:59:33 PM] Lëvîty: (sorry oof)

[9:59:41 PM] Lëvîty: (I'm worried about homework stuff)

[9:59:58 PM] Andrew Cornell: (huh, so we do)

[10:00:12 PM] Andrew Cornell: (I guess I always think Levan's Weight is 1 cause of her abilities)

[10:00:12 PM] Lëvîty: Levan goes over to Jay.

[10:00:29 PM] Lëvîty: Levan hops a little as she does so, putting her feet on the ground now.

[10:00:37 PM] Lewot: Alright, Miles and Levan switch places.

[10:00:46 PM] Lewot: (Is Jared still up?)

[10:00:57 PM] Lewot: As they step on the roots, the pathway opens again, just like before.

[10:02:25 PM] Lëvîty: Levan yawns.

[10:03:05 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Hmmm..." I step off the root

[10:04:02 PM] Lewot: Rammen steps off the right root, but Miles' weight holds it all the way down.

[10:04:11 PM] Lewot: The gap remains open.

[10:04:52 PM] Andrew Cornell: "I'll go check out the entrance," I say, heading for the gap.

[10:05:11 PM] KV: Miles takes a seat on the root, looking for anything to do.

[10:05:27 PM] Lewot: Rammen arrives at the gap. On the other side of it is a third root.

[10:05:52 PM] Lewot: And a tree corridor going a ways behind it, which appears to end in a T-junction.

[10:06:07 PM] Andrew Cornell: "This may help."

[10:06:13 PM] Andrew Cornell: I stand on the tree root.

[10:06:59 PM] Lewot: Rammen feels like he weighs the third root all the way down. However, nothing appears to happen. (That's becoming my field puzzle catchphrase >:3 )

[10:07:13 PM] Sir Jared: I'm still up. Just derped though and thought some other chat was this one. XD

[10:07:30 PM] Lewot: ;3

[10:07:43 PM] KV: Miles shouts to Rammen. "Well? Anything interesting?"

[10:08:01 PM | Edited 10:08:05 PM] Lëvîty: Levan begins to drift backwards.

[10:08:03 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Well, I appear to be weighing the root down all the way," I say.

"Try and step off of yours!"

[10:08:46 PM] KV: Miles climbs back to his feet, stepping off the root.

[10:08:50 PM] Lewot: Levan drifts off her root, and Miles steps off his

[10:08:54 PM] Lewot: the gap remains open.

[10:09:07 PM] KV: "Ha ha! Nice!"

[10:09:14 PM] KV: Miles walks through the gap to join Rammen.

[10:09:19 PM] Sir Jared: "Perhaps we should switch with them?" Jay ponders.

[10:09:29 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Just as to be expected," I say as Miles approaches.

[10:09:46 PM] Lewot: Miles arrives next to Rammen.

[10:10:45 PM] Lëvîty: Levan blinks. "Huh wha? Where do you want me to go?"

[10:11:09 PM] Andrew Cornell: "It should be alright for you guys to come over to us now!" I call out to the others.

[10:11:09 PM] KV: "Guys! Gap's open, c'mon through!"

[10:12:12 PM] Sir Jared: Jay goes on through

[10:12:23 PM] Lewot: Jay goes on through!

[10:12:50 PM] Lewot: (I think Jay's HP is still pretty low, so if he takes any more damage he'll finally go Feral.)

[10:13:02 PM] Sir Jared: Yaaay

[10:14:13 PM] Andrew Cornell: "If you guys wanna take a look up ahead while we wait for Levan," I say, "you're more than welcome to. It appears to be another intersection of sorts."

[10:14:55 PM] KV: Miles walks down the corridor towards the T-shaped junction, keeping an eye out for leaf pits.

[10:15:11 PM] Lewot: There don't appear to be any leaf pits on the way.

[10:15:18 PM] Lewot: Miles reaches the T-junction.

[10:15:32 PM] Lewot: To the left, the path ends abruptly in what appears to be a tree made of glass

[10:16:02 PM] Lewot: through the glass, Miles sees something lying on the ground. It's a turnip with black hair, glasses, and an evil grin.

[10:16:08 PM] Lewot: He's just lying there, unmoving.

[10:16:16 PM] Lewot: Behind the glass tree.

[10:16:33 PM] KV: "What the..."

[10:16:34 PM] Lewot: The tree fills the left path such that you can't get around it.

[10:17:24 PM] Lëvîty: Levan blinks. "What is it? Do you see something?"

[10:17:32 PM] Lëvîty: She's just kind of been thinking to herself.

[10:17:48 PM] KV: "Yeah, the weirdest-looking turnip I've ever seen."

[10:19:13 PM] Andrew Cornell: "A turnip?" I murmur to myself.

[10:19:29 PM] KV: "Can't get to it now, though."

[10:19:41 PM] Lëvîty: "Another turnip? Really?"

[10:19:42 PM] KV: Miles turns around, checking what's on the other end of the junction.

[10:19:50 PM] Lëvîty: "Why would a turnip be in here?"

[10:20:02 PM] Lëvîty: She turns to Rammen. "What did you /do?/"

[10:20:27 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Well, it's a forest," I say to Levan. "I imagine there's a large number of plants and vegetables that grow here."

[10:20:31 PM] Lewot: The right path has a dead end too, but Miles sees something out of place at the end, color-wise. It looks yellow, and buried in the dirt and shrubs.

[10:20:36 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Though I'll admit a turnip is rather...curious..."

[10:20:46 PM] Andrew Cornell: And unnerving, as I think about the Turnip Bros.

[10:20:53 PM] Andrew Cornell: I decide to consult with them on the matter.

[10:21:11 PM] KV: Miles walks towards the yellowish object buried in the ground on the other end.

[10:21:38 PM] Lewot: He walks a ways and then looks down at the object. It looks pretty much like this http://www.mariowiki.com/images/3/39/PM\_Train.png

[10:22:16 PM] KV: Miles recognizes the object immediately.

[10:22:22 PM] KV: "Oh, finally, something I'm good at!"

[10:22:45 PM] KV: Miles attempts to dig it out of the ground.

[10:23:13 PM] Lëvîty: "But I mean... have you seen any other turnips around here yet? At all?"

[10:23:16 PM] Lewot: It's about half-buried. Miles manages to dig out the dirt around it.

[10:23:45 PM] KV: "Nope," Miles grunts as he digs. "Just the one."

[10:25:11 PM] Lewot: The spring pad gets completely dug out, and flops onto its side. Miles sees that underneath it was another root pad, which now rises up, relieved of the pressure. After the root rises up, you all hear a shattering noise.

[10:25:38 PM] Andrew Cornell: "What in the-"

[10:25:47 PM] Lewot: The glass tree dissolves into dust, and simultaneously a wooden trapdoor opens underneath Travis, and he falls in.

[10:25:48 PM] Andrew Cornell: I rush over to Miles, trying to figure out what's up.

[10:26:00 PM] Lewot: Rammen glimpses him as he falls.

[10:26:08 PM] Lewot: A moment later, the trapdoor closes.

[10:26:19 PM] Lewot: It blends perfectly with the ground.

[10:26:22 PM] Andrew Cornell: "What happened?" I ask Miles.

[10:26:46 PM] Andrew Cornell: "And was that thing just now...was that the turnip you were referring to?"

[10:26:59 PM] KV: Miles shakes his head swiftly, trying to make sense of what just happened.

[10:27:17 PM] KV: "Uh, yeah, that was it."

[10:27:28 PM] Andrew Cornell: Uh oh

[10:27:46 PM] Andrew Cornell: I bring out the Turnip Bros.

[10:28:10 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Miles, this is important," I tell him. "I need you to describe that turnip as best you can to Tommy and Terry."

[10:28:28 PM] KV: "Oh you have got to be kidding me."

[10:28:37 PM] Lëvîty: "I told you!"

[10:28:44 PM] Lëvîty: "I told you I told you I told you."

[10:29:04 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Miles, this could be a matter of life and death if everything these two have been telling me is true!" I say to him. "Now tell them what that turnip looked like!"

[10:29:33 PM] KV: Miles lets out a semi-frustrated sigh and rolls his eyes.

[10:29:47 PM] KV: "Large-ish, black hair, glasses, smug grin..."

[10:30:45 PM] Andrew Cornell: I look at the Turnip Bros. for their reaction.

[10:31:02 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Is it him? Is it really Travis Turnip?" I ask them.

[10:31:27 PM] Lëvîty: Leván looks over the two.

[10:31:39 PM] Andrew Cornell: (awaiting Turnip reactions :P)

[10:31:51 PM] Andrew Cornell: (also, haha, Miles talked to turnips :3c )

[10:31:53 PM] KV: Miles ponders his life again as his partner confers with his items.

[10:32:17 PM] Lewot: Tommy and Terry retain their blank stares, thereby confirming that it is indeed Travis.

[10:32:20 PM] Lewot: Or was.

[10:32:33 PM] Lewot: Anyway, behind the closed trapdoor, the corridor continues.

[10:32:42 PM] Lewot: Also, did Miles grab the Spring Pad?

[10:32:43 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Oh dear...oh no oh no oh no oh no oh no oh no..."

[10:33:08 PM] Lewot: Or anyone

[10:33:39 PM] KV: Yeah, Miles picked it up while he was describing the turnip to his partner and the other turnips.

[10:33:46 PM] KV: (Retroactively, that is.)

[10:33:51 PM] Andrew Cornell: (I believe Miles did, yeah, since he was picking it up anyway)

[10:34:10 PM] Andrew Cornell: I look at the others. "We need to get out of this forest as fast as we can," I say gravely.

[10:34:37 PM] KV: "What."

[10:34:49 PM] Lewot: Tommy and Terry stare blankly at Rammen, indicating that, fearsome as he is, they think it's time to face Travis.

[10:36:29 PM] Andrew Cornell: "What's that? Are you sure? It's been so soon since we all joined together..."

[10:37:00 PM] Andrew Cornell: "And I mean after all, you said he's the #1 ranked assassin in the world!"

[10:37:21 PM] Sir Jared: (I'm sorry guys. I really need to sleep at this point if I wanna sleep for two hours before school. You can keep going, since I've barely contributed anything to the play tonight though. As usual. ;w; I'm really really sorry I've been so tired all the time too.)

[10:37:48 PM] Andrew Cornell: (nah, man, it's cool, if you need to sleep you should sleep)

[10:38:01 PM] Lewot: It's alright with me

[10:38:24 PM] Lewot: we may need you coming up, though, so we should probably just stop here

[10:38:53 PM] Lewot: We've gotten our first glimpse of Travis, so that's something

[10:39:00 PM | Edited 10:39:28 PM] KV: Miles collapses. The realization that his life is a complete goddamned fucking mess was too much for him for now.

[10:39:19 PM] Lëvítý: Levan floats away forever (not really)

[10:39:41 PM] Lewot: I'm sorry Levitita...

[10:40:15 PM] KV: (Y'know, if we've already lost Jared, I think I'm gonna take this opportunity to dip out myself. My body is begging for sleep.)

[10:40:34 PM] KV: In his last conscious moment, Miles whispers as he falls, "Quick... Save..."

[10:41:11 PM] Andrew Cornell: I catch Miles quickly as he completely collapses.

[10:41:45 PM] Andrew Cornell: "I told you it might be too much to handle for him," I say to the Turnip Bros. "He's not very good at this whole 'talking to turnips' thing."

[10:42:04 PM] Andrew Cornell: "Best to Quicksave and wait for him to wake up again."

[10:42:16 PM] Lewot: Quicksave complete.
